

PHILLIES TAKE OPENING GAME

"Breaks" Go to the Phillies,
Boston Commits Many Errors of Judgment.

In that inning and was retired at first on a throw by Barry. Stock worked Shore for four balls, the Boston heavier apparently feeling the strain under which he had been working. Bancroft bit one to Barry, but Scott had failed to cover second base and both runners were safe, despite a wonderful piece of fielding on the part of Barry. Paske drew four wild ones and the bases were full with but one out and Cravath next up.

Crowd Prays For a Hit.

The big crowd begged and prayed the home run star to clear the ball over the fence. He hit a weak boundary to Scott, near third base. While it seemed that the infielder had time to beat Stock to the plate, he threw to first, retiring Cravath, while Stock scored with the winning run.

Luders hit a weak grounder toward Shore but the ball took a bad bound just as the pitcher was reaching for it and Luders was safe while Bancroft scored. Luders undertook to steal second but was pegged out by Cady.

Errors of judgment had a good deal to do with the defeat of the Sox. Scott seems to be the weak member of the team and several important plays in Friday's game hinged on the shortstop.

WHY IS LEGORE OUT OF THE GAME?

the time. On that basis, it seems to me that Yale would be 45 percent more effective with him on the team.

"Maybe Hinkley feels that by keeping Legore on the second he can fill the star full of new ambition to keep his mind on every detail of play. Maybe he intends later on to put Legore in when he has developed the giant to the desired stage. Perhaps, though, he merely is intending to make him step off the team for good and all during this season. If so he is making a fearful error. I sincerely hope Hinkley will change his tactics before it is too late and that he will get Harry Legore in there soon enough to fit in with the others. If Legore is kept out, I really believe Yale will be beaten by both Harvard and Princeton. If he is in the game, I think Yale will have quite a bit better than an even chance."

Bill's Going to Quit Baseball When He Gets Rich; Thinks He May Buy War Stocks and Make $24,000

Kindly Disposed Stranger Tells the Basher How to Make a Pile by Turning His $300 Over to Him for Investment.

BY RING W. LARDNER.

(Copyright 1915, by Ring W. Lardner.)

CLEVELAND, Oct. 8.—Steve, Well Steve, wear pretty near all those and the money we get threw so much the better and I wouldn't be a fall surprised if this was my last season in base ball and I certainly hope so especially after the treatment I've received and Hinkley breaking his promise a boat leaving me play in the city serious.

Of course I haven't got enough money saved up to support I and Gussey not even with my share of the city serious money but I got a scheme Steve that if it goes threw we will be on easy at and can tell base ball to go to the other place.

I will tell you a bout the scheme Steve, only don't say nothing a bout it till I've made my pile because I promised the man that tipped me off that I wouldn't say nothing till it was all over or it might spoil the game. When we get our share of the serious money I will have a bout $300 dollars in I humo saved up including my share and after we payed for our automobile.

Gets Bill Interested.

So I says what's the matter with brewry stock and he says they aint nothing the matter with it now but in a few yrs. they wont be no beer sold and hen where will your brewry stock be at and besides you cant live on no $100.00 per annum. So I says may be I'd better buy bonds or real estate and he says why dont you get wise and get in on the big money so I ast him what was he talking a bout and he says did you ever hear of Bethlehem steel or Gen. Motors and I says No I hadent never met either of them so he says they aint people these stocks. And he says a wife a go they was selling for all most nothing per share and now there up a round that if I'd boughten other 1 of them when $250.00 dollars per share and he says they was cheap I would be fixed for life now.

He explained how a man can get in on them things with out buying out the right. With $100.00 I could of boughten 20 shares and held on to them till the stock had went up 200 pts. and then I would of made $1000.00 for my $100 and wouldn't never half to think a bout working for a living.

So I says well what day is them stocks going to be cheap again and he says its to late for me. And then in a mins he says theys 2 or 4 diffrent stocks that bound to go way up and the 7 was witch was going up lat. but they all of them go up in a mo.

Pretty Safe For Bill.

So he says if I would give him my $300.00 when I get it he would fine out witch stock was going up the highest and buy none for me. And then in a mo. when I've cleaned up $24000.000 dollars if every thing goes O. K. I can tell Bethlehem and Gen. Motors we jump in Michigan lake with there ball club.

cant tell you what stocks am I going to buy even when I fine out because I told the man I wouldn't say nothing because if every body knowed a bout them it would cheapen the stocks and besides I dont suppose you could dig up enough money to go in on it and its no game for a man that cant afford it. But wait till I've cleaned up Steve and will make you a nice little present. Pretty soft say Steve making the stock market buy your bread and butter but a man couldnt do it if he didnt have capital to invest. Reep. BILL.

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 2.—The White Sox won the third game of the series for the city championship from their National League rivals, the Cubs, 5 to 2.

two runs in the ninth. The total paid attendance was 6902.
